

Name: _____ Period: _____

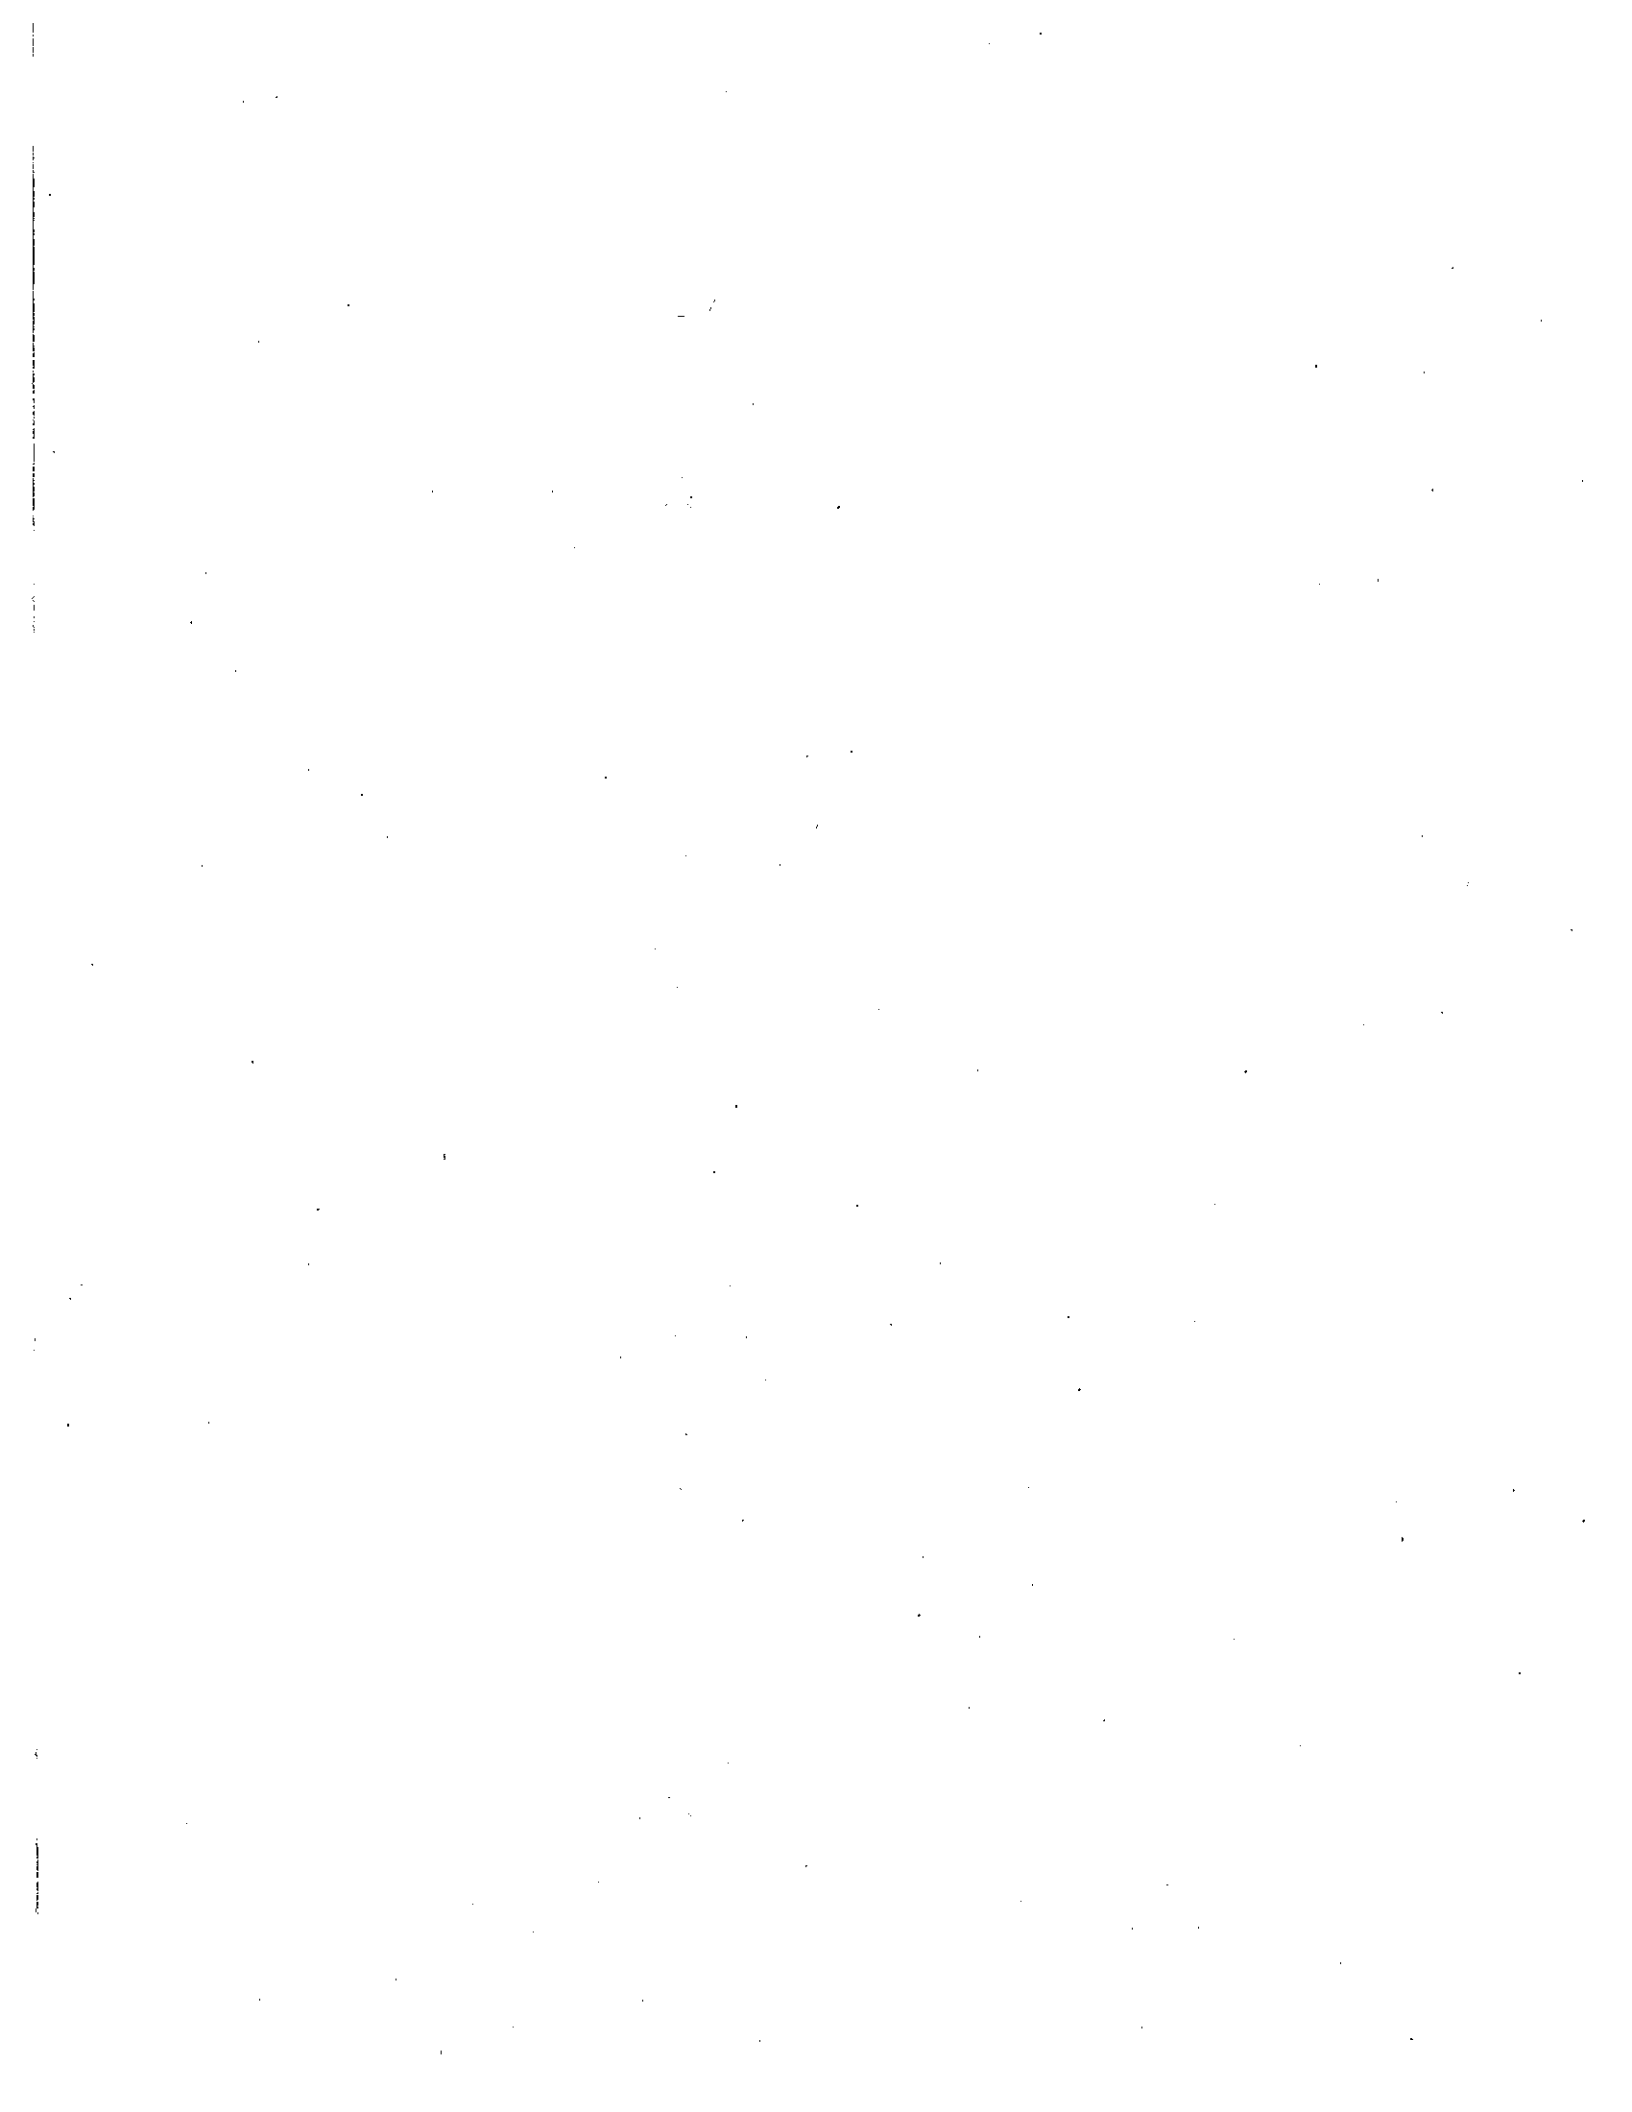

Unit: Industrialization

Objectives:

1. Explain the impact of industrialization on the United States.
2. Describe the process of urbanization and the change in cities that took place during the Industrialization Revolution.
3. Examine the impact of cultural diffusion of immigrants in America.
4. Analyze why human populations choose to migrate.
5. Explain how cultural differences can lead to discriminatory practices and perceptions.
6. Describe and interpret the elements of a market economy, including capitalism, entrepreneurship, free enterprise, corporations, monopolies, specialization and competition.
7. Compare and contrast the "giants of big business" from the Industrial Revolution.
8. Explain the purpose of a Labor Union.
9. Describe how women were able to gain suffrage with a constitutional amendment.
10. Describe and compare Progressive reforms.
11. Compare and contrast the Progressive presidents.

Essential Questions for the Unit

1. What is the impact of cultural diffusion and immigration on the landscape of America?
2. In what ways can change/progress/growth be both positive and negative?

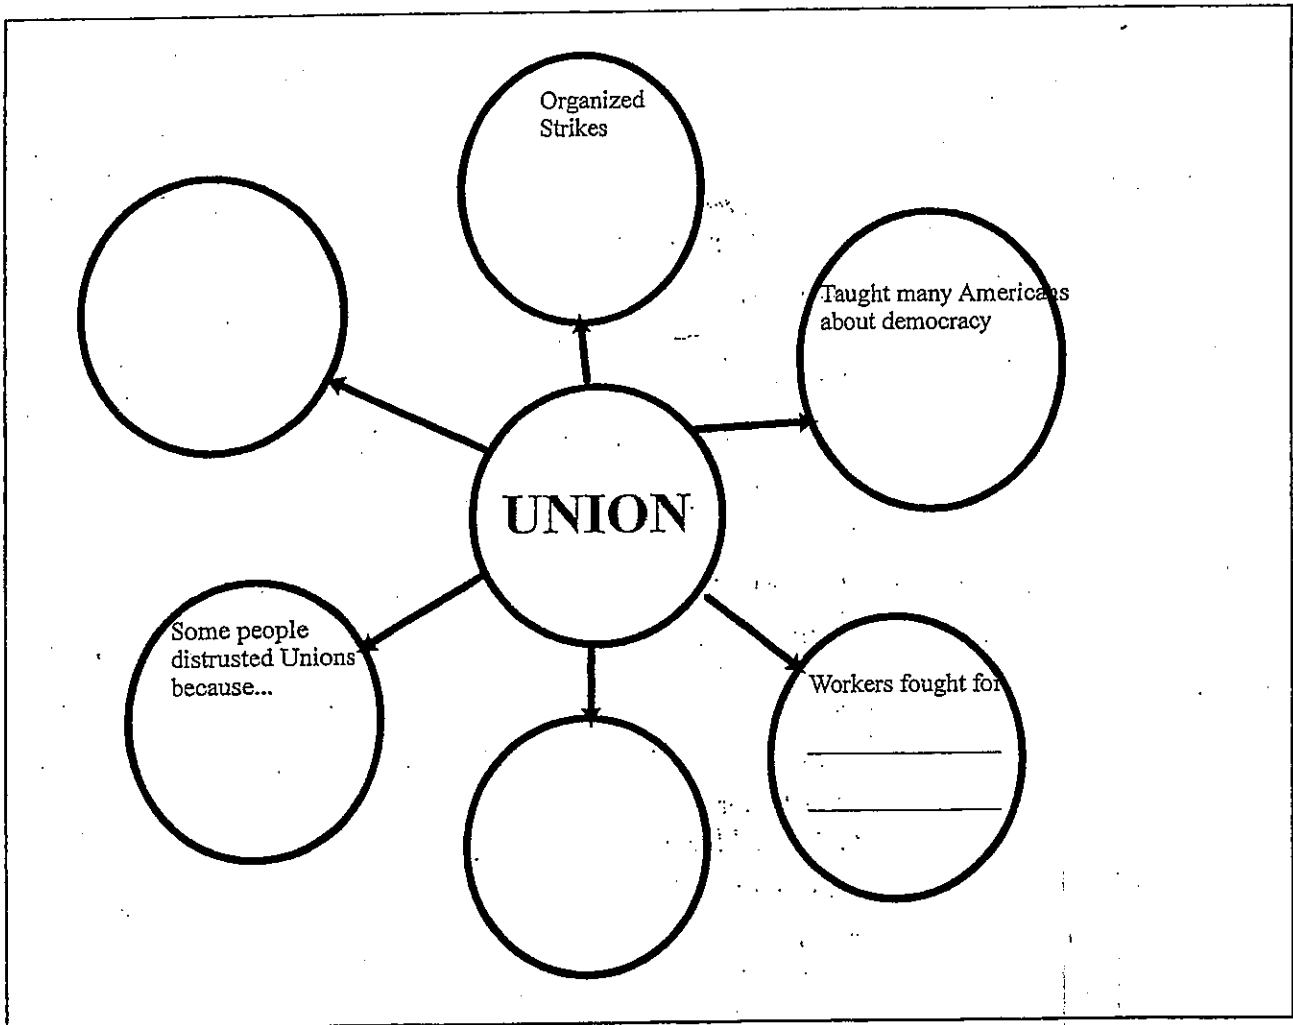

New Immigration in the U.S.

1. Fill in the blanks: Between _____ and _____, some _____ million immigrants entered the United States- more than the population of the entire country in _____!
2. Provide at least four different reasons why so many people chose to migrate to the United States during this time:
3. Compare and contrast the "old" immigrants to the "new" immigrants.
4. Based on the information you read, do you think that the old immigrants or the new immigrants were more easily accepted in the U.S.? Why?
5. Describe what most immigrants experienced on their journey to the U.S.:
6. Most immigrants settled in U.S. cities. What kind of neighborhoods developed in American cities? Why?
7. What does "assimilation" mean?
8. Describe at least four different contributions of immigrants:
9. What were the goals and beliefs of "Nativists"?
10. Describe the attempts made by Nativists to decrease the levels of immigration to the U.S.:

The Development of Unions

Describe the conditions in the factories that led to workers organizing themselves into unions:

What exactly is a union? Fill in the bubble map below so that you have a complete description of a union:

Examples of Unions:

The Knights of Labor

The American Federation of Labor

Were union strikes successful? Describe some of the outcomes of strikes:

Progressives

Forming Labor Unions was one way that workers during the Industrial Revolution were able to get their voices heard. A political group known as the "Progressives" also formed and lobbied for worker rights.

Answer the following questions while you watch the video about Progressives.

1. What were some of the goals of the Progressives?
2. What was the name Theodore Roosevelt gave to reporters that tried to expose the corrupt business and government practices during Industrialization?
3. What was the purpose of the Settlement Houses opened by Progressives?
4. How did "political bosses" affect the general population before the progressive era?
5. What effect did Uptain Sinclair's book, The Jungle, have on Americans?
6. Who was the first Progressive president?
7. What was the purpose of the "Square Deal"?

The Rights of Women

Define SUFFRAGE:

Summarize each of the following sections from your textbook in the spaces provided below:

Women Vote in the West

Growing Support

The 19th Amendment

Higher Education

Women's Clubs

Women Reformers

The Crusade Against Alcohol

William Howard Taft

Woodrow Wilson

Progressive Presidents

Theodore Roosevelt